Beginning in 1956 if an EILB champion was not an Ivy school, the next highest Ivy finisher was considered to be the Ivy champion.*

The Ivy League teams participated in the Eastern Intercollegiate Baseball League from 1930 to 1992. That league included Army and Navy. Beginning in 1993, the eight League schools have competed in an Ivy-only conference schedule.

Each year the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) select Academic All-America® teams in the sports of football, men's and women's soccer, women's volleyball, men's and women's basketball, baseball, softball and men's and women's track/cross country. Also, men's and women's at-large teams – comprised of athletes from all sports not listed above – are chosen. To be eligible as an Academic All-American, an athlete must maintain a 3.30 grade point average and be a starter or key reserve on his or her team.*
