VIÁGO has three main types of customer accounts:

1. Club VIÁGO Members – Can purchase marketplace products and services through membership and can earn VIÁGO Points to apply to products and specific services within membership.
2. VIÁGO Ambassadors – have the opportunity to earn money through the sign up of new Club VIÁGO membership customers and through purchases of the products by members whom they have signed up. Ambassadors do not earn nor participate in multilevel commissions until they have reached the Senior Ambassador or qualified criteria.
3. VIÁGO Senior (Qualified) Ambassadors - can earn team-based bonuses through the multi-level components of the compensation plan, in addition to direct commissions derived from the sale of products and the sign-up of new members.

An Ambassador may also be a club member and vice versa. However, there is no requirement for an ambassador to be a membership customer to generate commissions derived from sales.

Ambassadors are not compensated for the enrollment of other ambassadors. They are only compensated through the sign-up of new membership customers or purchases by members within their customer base or organization.
