CFL STATISTICAL NOTES & DEFINITIONS:

- 1. Plays from Scrimmage Total number of Rush attempts, Pass attempts and Team Loss plays (excludes plays negated by penalty).
- 2. Net Offence Rushing yards plus Passing yards less Team Loss yards.
(Team Losses include QB Sacks Allowed plus other yardage lost on fumbled snaps, safeties conceded, QB Kneel plays etc.)
- 3. Turnovers Interceptions and Fumbles Lost data for Turnover calculations do not include those made on 2-point convert attempts. Though defensive players are credited with these plays, at the team level no actual Turnover takes place since the next play is a kickoff in any event.
- 4. 20+ / 30+ /40+ gains Big Plays are calculated from the Line of Scrimmage (or point of possession for kick returns) to where the play ends.
- 5. QB Sacks Credited whenever a QB is tackled for a loss behind the LOS with the primary exceptions of QB Sneak plays, fumbled snaps and handoffs.
i.e. Not a Sack when the QB merely falls on a fumbled ball made by another player.
- 6. Blocked kicks

FG Att Credited when a defender contacts the ball in flight rendering a FG attempt unsuccessful by his actions. This permits a blocked kick to be credited even if the ball crosses the line of scrimmage. The kicking team is charged with a Missed FG attempt.

Punt Credited when a defender contacts the ball during a punt attempt and the ball remains in the backfield or does not go downfield more than 15 yards. The latter clause permits crediting players with blocks due to the substantial field position gained.

HISTORICAL NOTES:

- Foundations of the CFL East Division date to 1907 but the game was strictly an amateur one until the 1930s. By the mid-1930's players were beginning to be paid openly as an occupation. The 1936 season marks the foundation of the WIFU (Western Interprovincial Football Union), direct predecessor of the CFL West Division of today. The strictly amateur football era lasted from the late 19th C. into the 1930s. Many of our clubs trace their roots to these amateur days. The above tables provide a full list of CFL-related clubs since the founding of the IRFU (East, 1907) & the WIFU (West, 1936). These leagues continue as our East & West Divisions today.
- The CFL's East Division dates back directly to its founding in 1907 as the Interprovincial Rugby Football Union (IRFU). The West Division was founded in 1936 as the Western Interprovincial Football Union (WIFU). The IRFU and WIFU merged under a single governing body on January 19, 1958 as the Canadian Football League.
- These standings do NOT include the un-related 1941 ECRFU which contained just two temporary IRFU teams (IRFU suspended operations after 1940 due to WW II). The WIFU did not suspend operations after the 1941 season but competed with the 1941 ECRFU winner (Ottawa) for the 1941 Grey Cup (Dominion Championship).
- "Yr" = number of years of operation including 1945 (WIFU conducted playoffs only). No regular season play was held from 1942 to 1944 or in 2020.
- For historical record purposes, the Ottawa Football Clubs are considered to be a single entity with two intervals of non-participation (1997-2001 & 2006-2013). Previous Ottawa teams have been known as: Ottawa Football Club 1876 to 1898, Ottawa Rough Riders 1899 to 1913, Ottawa Senators or "Ottawas" 1913 to 1930, Ottawa Rough Riders 1931 to 1996, Ottawa Renegades 2002 to 2005. The current Ottawa member club of the CFL is the Ottawa REDBLACKS (2014-present).
- The Montréal (IRFU) clubs include all Montreal teams from 1936 to 1940 & 1945 and were named the Indians, Cubs, Royals, and Hornets. The Hamilton Tigers left the IRFU in 1948 and were replaced by the Hamilton Wildcats (ORFU). The Tigers and Wildcats merged in January 1950 to form today's Hamilton Tiger-Cats.
- In the West, prior clubs in Calgary (the Bronks 1936-40) and Vancouver (the Grizzlies 1941) bear no connection to the CFL's Calgary Stampeders and BC Lions. The Edmonton Eskimos date to 1911 but did not enter the WIFU until 1938 (1938-39) and again following WW II in 1949. They were re-named the Edmonton Elks in 2021.

|------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------|-----------------|----------------------------------------------------------|
| Formed    | September 7, 1907 by the Hamilton Tigers, Toronto Argonauts (ORFU) and by the Ottawa Football Club and Montréal Football Club of the QRFU.        |                              |                 |                                                          |
| Suspended | On July 24, 1941 to support Canada's World War II efforts (returned in 1945)                                                                      |                              |                 |                                                          |
| Re 1941   | The 1941 ECRFU is NOT considered part of the continuous IRFU-East-CFL history.                                                                    |                              |                 |                                                          |
| Post 1958 | In January 1958, the IRFU & WIFU merged to form the Canadian Football League. IRFU re-named CFL Eastern Conference (1960) & East Division (1981). |                              |                 |                                                          |

CFL STANDINGS & RESULTS YEAR-BY-YEAR

1996 TO 2001

1996: CFL reverted to all-Canadian, 9-team format (East & West Div.)
 Montreal Alouettes franchise re-formed from Baltimore roster.
 CFL adopted the "Cross-Over" playoff qualification rule.

1997: Ottawa Rough Riders suspended prior to the season (as of Nov 6/96).
 Winnipeg returned to the East Division for 1997 season.
 John Tory appointed as CFL Commissioner.

ALL-TIME CFL REGULAR SEASON INDIVIDUAL RECORDS TO 2025

THE CFL RECORD BOOK

Over the long history of Canadian Football in Canada, game statistics and records have evolved from 1907 to where they stand today, deep and well-supported by original sources. Prior to the early 1950's however for most data except scoring we lack the original game sheets and reports. Therefore, most records in this Individual Records section are based only on games from 1950 (in the West) and from 1954 and for East Division games only (based on our best evidence).

PATHWAY TO THE GREY CUP:

In Post-WW II Canadian Football from 1945 to the present, only five clubs have won the Grey Cup without playing a single home playoff game:

|      |              |                                  |

| 2005 | Edmonton     | Won S/F at CGY, Won Final at BC  |
| 2019 | Winnipeg     | Won S/F at CGY, Won Final at SSK |

HISTORICAL NOTES:

1. Across 1907 to 1935, IRFU playoffs included games against Collegiate, ORFU and other amateur clubs and thus are not included here.
2. Canadian Football governing bodies were the CRU (Canadian Rugby Union) until 1955, and the CFC (Canadian Football Council) across 1956-57. The CFC was renamed the Canadian Football League in January 1958.
3. The present-day CFL East Division was formed from the long-standing IRFU founded in 1907. It was renamed the Eastern Conference in 1960 and the East Division in 1981. The CFL West Division was formed as the WIFU in 1936, renamed the Western Conference in 1961, and the West Division in 1981.
4. Div. Semi-Finals have been held in the one-game format since 1965. The 2-game format was used in the East only in 1951 and in the West from 1952 to 1964.
5. In the East, Division Finals were staged as a 2-game total point series in most seasons from 1936 to 1972. The East adopted the one-game final format in 1973 with the exception of 1986 when there was a two-game Final only.
6. In the West, Division Finals were staged as a two-game total point series in most years from 1949. Across 1950-1071, Division Finals were staged as best-of-three series. The one-game final format began in 1972 in the West.
7. ORFU champions played the IRFU from 1945-52 and in the WIFU final in 1953-54.
8. Regina (1936) & Winnipeg (1940) did not play in the Grey Cup due to rules disputes.
9. Division results shown for 1941 are from the ECRFU (not part of CFL history).
10. The 2020 season was cancelled due to the Covid-19 Pandemic.

Note: It is worth mention that CFL Playoff formats went away from Best-of-2 or Best-of-3 series in the early 1970s and therefore this record is now largely untouchable.

Throughout the 1950s and 1960s clubs could have as many as five playoff games in a year compared to just one or two today.

* Cahoon's receiving was corrected in 2008 (a 2005 GC completion recorded initially for Cahoon was corrected properly to Dave Stala)

Data: 30+ = receptions for gains of 30 or more yards; '2D' = receptions for 2nd down conversions; 'YAC' = yards after catch.

Note: 1. Ben Cahoon's receiving totals were corrected in 2008 (a 2005 GC completion recorded initially for Cahoon was corrected properly to Dave Stala)
2. All Grey Cup receiving data continues to be reviewed and enhanced by an exhaustive video evaluation of each Grey Cup play from 1952 to 2024. This process thus provides equal Record Book treatment for all players in all eras.

NOTE - THE IMPACT OF 1954 CRU RULEBOOK ANOMALY - EAST VS WEST

Since 1958, incomplete passes accompanied by a defensive pass interference (DPI) penalty have been negated with no reception/yardage recorded. In 1954 however IRFU (CRU) rules indicated they should be scored as completions while the WIFU used the current rule. In the 1954 GC, a 26-yard DPI call on play #93 (a "completion" from Etcheverry to O'Quinn) used the IRFU interpretation and gave O'Quinn a record 13 receptions for 316 yards; using the current (and the WIFU) rule gave O'Quinn only 12 catches for 290 yards. That data is used here.

GREY CUP CHAMPIONSHIP GAME SUMMARIES

1909 TO 1930

The 1909 Grey Cup game is deemed to be Grey Cup #1 because the original trophy awarded by Lord Grey was first presented after that contest. However, the 1901 game itself was merely a continuation the "Dominion Senior Football Championship". That competition began in 1892 with the following annual results

NOTE:

From 1973 to 1984, clubs were permitted to protect players based on their territory and they were exempt from the Draft. From 1973 to 1982, clubs were allowed two exemptions, in 1983-84 that decreased to one. These exemptions could be traded.

Notes:

In 1953, Billy Vessels was named as M/O Player in Canada.
In 1974, the CFL's Most Outstanding Lineman Award was split into two categories: M/O Defensive Player and M/O Offensive Lineman. League-wide M/O Rookie first awarded in 1973.
In 1954, Sam Etcheverry (MOP) & Gerry James were chosen.

Jeff Russel Memorial Trophy - 1928 to 1994

Donated in 1928 to commemorate a Montreal player who lost his life working in a storm in 1926. The trophy went to the player deemed to have the best qualities of courage and fair play and came to represent the Eastern MOP. It was retired in 1994 at the request of the family and replaced by the Terry Evanshen Trophy.

Jeff Nicklin Memorial Trophy - 1946 to 2010

Donated in 1946 by the 1st Canadian Paratroop Battalion in memory of Lt.-Col. Jeff Nicklin who died in action in WW II on March 24, 1945. He had been an outstanding player with Winnipeg from 1936 to 1940. The trophy has gone to the Most Outstanding Player in the West continuously since 1946.

CANADIAN FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

PLAYER SECTION

In 2015, we re-organized the Hall of Fame Section of the annual CFL Guide separating the players roughly into the eras in which they performed. A comprehensive biography for each CFHOF inductee along with other pertinent information may be obtained at the Canadian Football Hall of Fame or via their website by accessing www.cfhof.ca. The Hall is under the leadership of Greg Dick, Chief Football Operations Officer of the CFL, and Eric Noivo Assoc. VP Health & Safety, Football Operations. The CFHOF facility is located in Hamilton and opened on November 28, 1972. Greg chairs the Selection Committee which also includes FRC leadership and who together meet annually in electing new inductees into the Player, Builder, Amateur Player and Football Reporters of Canada Sections of the Hall.

The honoured players listed on the following pages have been inducted into the Canadian Football Hall of Fame since charter membership was awarded on June 19, 1963. The first listing below are CFHOF members who played their football career primarily before World War II and the later formation of the Canadian Football League in 1958.

COMMISSIONER'S AWARD

On November 22, 1990 Commissioner Donald Crump presented the first ever Commissioner's Award. This award is presented annually to the person(s) who have demonstrated dedication and made a significant contribution to Canadian Football. Mr. Crump created this award with the goal of recognizing and rewarding people who work behind the scenes and who have made an impact on the game. Gregory B. Fulton the CFL's Secretary-Treasurer, became the first-ever recipient.

JAKE GAUDAUR VETERANS AWARD

Presented by the Canadian Football League and Veterans Affairs Canada. An award which recognizes a CFL player who best demonstrates the many attributes of Canada's veterans.

HUGH CAMPBELL DISTINGUISHED LEADERSHIP AWARD

First presented in 2006, it is awarded annually to an individual who demonstrates great leadership and made significant contributions to the Canadian Football League. It is awarded to honour Hugh Campbell's years of service as a player, coach and executive.

| 1912-13 | The Alberta Rugby Football Union makes uniform numbers mandatory in 1912 and the ORFU follows suit in 1913.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| 1916-18 | Football in Canada is suspended in order to support Canada's involvement and support of efforts in World War I. In 1915, the Linesman official is added.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| 1919    | No playoff games due to a rules dispute - CRU refuses to recognize any team as Dominion (Grey Cup) champion                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| 1920-21 | The number of players permitted on the field for each team was reduced from 14 to 12 and ball put into play by "snap back" rather being heeled backwards. Football fields first marked with lines five yards apart parallel to the goal line to permits easier application of blocking rules by the game officials                                                                                                   |
| 1921    | Edmonton Eskimos became the first Western team to play in the Dominion Championship (Grey Cup) Final losing 23-0 to Toronto before 9,558 fans.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 1923    | The Regina Roughriders traveled to Toronto for the first of seven Grey Cup losing appearances up to 1934 representing the West.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| 1924    | Player uniform numbering becomes compulsory; Coach Billy Hughes of Queen's introduces use of game film for player training.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |

| 1930    | The Winnipeg Rugby Football Club was formed on May 14, 1930 at a meeting of the Manitoba Rugby Football Union (Tammany Tigers re-named).                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| 1931    | CRU adopted the forward pass in all divisions. The Convert was moved to be scrimmaged from the 5-yard line.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| 1932    | By 1932, football was played at night under floodlights, radio broadcasts were made of games and the use of large scorebards became standards.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| 1934    | Intercollegiate teams formally dropped out of the annual competition for a place in the Grey Cup game. In January, the CRU granted the 1934 Grey Cup game to the West for the first time but reversed the decision in October 1934.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| 1935    | The IRFU adopted a 9-game schedule for each club for the first time.Winnipeg 'Pegs became the first Western club to win the Grey Cup defeating the Hamilton Tigers 18-12 at their HAAA Grounds. In the West, the WCRFL unlimited downfield blocking for five yards and permitted passes to be thrown from anywhere behind the line. The CRU turned down all rule changes                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 1936    | The Western Interprovincial Football Union was formed on April 6, 1936 by the Regina Roughriders, Winnipeg Blue Bombers and Calgary Bronks clubs. The CRU restricted teams to only five "imports". Inter-collegiate teams withdraw from Grey Cup competition. Montréal AAA club folded. Forward pass rules were amended to change the penalty for incompletions from loss of ball to loss of down only opening up play significantly                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| 1938-39 | The Edmonton Eskimos played two seasons in the WIFU and then suspended operations until the 1949 season returning permanently thereafter.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 1940    | Due to Winnipeg being barred from playing in the 1940 Dominion Final, the Ottawa versus Toronto Balmy Beach East Final became the only two-game Grey Cup championship ever played with Ottawa winning by 20-7 on total points. The WIFU withdrew from the CRU over a rules dispute                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| 1941    | The IRFU suspended operations due to World War II (replaced temporarily by the ECRFU); the WIFU played the 1941 season and ceased play in 1942. After decades of significant rules differences between East & West, the CRU adopted a uniform set for all play across the country. This permitted the Western winner to qualify for the Grey Cup game annually without dispute. Calgary Bronks withdrew from the WIFU and were replaced by the Vancouver Grizzlies                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| 1942    | Football in Canada is suspended in order to support Canada's involvement and support of efforts in World War II. The Grey Cup is competed for by service teams only. Calgary Stampeder Football Club formed in September 1945 joining the WIFU to create a three-team league with Winnipeg and Regina                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |

| 2021    | Despite the challenges of the Covid-19 pandemic, the CFL returned to the field with a 14-game season and the latest Grey Cup ever played on December 12th. Winnipeg won consecutive Grey Cups for the first time since 1962. For the first time in league history there were no pre-season games held                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| 2022    | The CFL returned to a full 18-game season and a total of 95 games including pre-season. The Blue Bombers won the West Division playoffs and reached the Grey Cup for a 3rd consecutive season. The Argonauts captured the Grey Cup with a 24-23 win over Winnipeg - their 7th straight winning appearance                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| 2023    | Montréal came from 2nd place to capture their first Grey Cup since 2010. Toronto tied the CFL record with 16 wins in regular season. Winnipeg appeared in their 4th consecutive Grey Cup game - a new club record.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| 2024    | The CFL continued an outstanding 3-year pattern of growth with Toronto capturing a record 19th Grey Cup. Winnipeg played in the Grey Cup for a 5th straight year. Eight clubs won at least 7 games in a year of parity; average scoring grew to 52 ppg. BC Lions drew an attendance of 53,788 in their home opener                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| 2025    | To open the 2025 CFL year, Randy Ambrosie announced his retirement with Stewart Johnston becoming the 15th CFL Commissioner. The season was one of continued growth and saw the announcement of major rule changes that would be implemented in 2026 and 2027. These changes involve the length of the CFL field (100 yds), end zone depth and location of goal posts, adjustment of rouge (single) rules and others. On-field results witnessed Saskatchewan's first Grey Cup victory since 2013 (over Montreal 25-17) and the end of the Blue Bombers' Grey Cup run (they made the playoffs as a cross-over team, first time) BC Lions Quarterback Nathan Rourke captured the Most Outstanding Player and Canadian Awards in 2025 while Calgary's Dedrick Mills (1,409) and BC's Leor Hatcher (1,688) led all rushers and receivers. League-wide scoring rose to its highest since 2008 at 52.9 ppg. BC's average of 8.04 yds/play set an A/T mark |
| 2026    | Commissioner Stewart Johnston announced the Canadian Football League's plan to enhance and grow our game with impending rule changes and updates to on-field game flow and timing. In 2026, the rouge (single) will be adjusted to remove granting points for kicks that merely go through or out of the end zone rather than result from tackles or concedes. The largest changes are planned for 2027 with alterations to our field length from 110 to 100 yards and with goal posts moved to the back of a 15-yard end zone. These changes are planned in order to open up the game and encourage more Touchdowns                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
