

THE VOTES IN THE CITY

THE COMPLETED CANVASS CHANGING NO RESULTS.

QUICKEST WORK DONE BY THE CANVASSERS IN SEVERAL YEARS—THE TOTAL VOTE FOR EVERY CANDIDATE.

The Board of Aldermen, after the quickest canvass on record of the votes cast at an election, yesterday officially declared the result of its labors, and each Alderman attached his signature to the returns as compiled by the County Clerk. It took the Aldermen 14 days to canvass the returns last year, but this year County Clerk Flack and his Deputy, Mr. Gilroy, seconded by the board, completed the canvass in four working days.

The smallest total vote cast was on the ballot for the Constitutional Convention. This vote was 173,037, of which 171,500 were in favor of the convention and 1,447 against it.

The total vote in the city for Judge of the Court of Appeals was 213,616, of which Charles Daniels, Republican, received 78,986, and Rufus W. Peckham, Democrat, 132,373. William Jay Groo, the Prohibition candidate, received 785 votes. Mr. Peckham received 53,387 votes over Mr. Daniels.

The vote on the local ticket was:
