

"GOOD TIMES" IS ITS NAME

Hippodrome's New Spectacle Is to Open During Next Two Weeks.

"Good Times" has been chosen as the title of this season's spectacle at the Hippodrome, scheduled to reopen during the next two weeks. The production will mark the beginning of Charles B. Dillingham's sixth season as manager of the Hippodrome, and will again be largely the work of R. H. Burnside, with music by Raymond Hubbell.

Marceline will return to the Hippodrome this season, and many European novelties are also promised. Belle Story will again be the prima donna, and the personnel of the performers will include Arthur Geary, Nanette Flack, Virginia Futrelle, Joseph Parsons, Robert McClellan, Agnes Mack, Violet Beasy, Jack Lambert, the Hanneford Family, Joe Jackson, Belleclaire Brothers, the Four Nelsons, Charles Strong, Lee Cross, Malla, Bart and Malla, the Berl Sisters and Dorothy Gates. Among the imported acts will be Perry Corwey, Kary and Sek, Max Teuber, the Four Roses, Abdalla's Arabian Troupe and others.

The New York Times

Published: July 28, 1920

Copyright © The New York Times