FILM STAR, BORN HERE, DIES IN GERMAN PLANE

Fern Andrea, Formerly of Illinois, Killed by Fall—Richthoff, Airman, Also Killed.

Copyright, 1922, by the Chicago Tribune Co.

BERLIN, July 4.—Fern Andrea, one of Germany's three most noted film stars, was killed tonight when a Hamburg-Berlin mail airplane in which she was riding fell to the ground. Miss Andrea, whose family name was Andrews, was born at Watseka, Ill.

Baron Richthoff, the brother of the famous commander of the Richthoff air squadron during the war, who was piloting the plane, was also killed. Fern Andrea's mother is now in Indianapolis. She was formerly a member of Barnum's circus and was famous for her "stunts" in the movies.

The New York Times
Published: July 5, 1922
Copyright © The New York Times