Amanda Wisehart & Frenchman Fire Fly Win Second Colorado versus The World Rodeo Championship

By Tanya Randall

Amanda Wisehart reunited with her great horse Frenchman Fire Fly to claim her second Colorado versus The World Rodeo Championship.

The annual National Western kickoff event, held January 10 in Denver, pits eight rodeo champions from Colorado versus eight champions from around the country. Each contention has its own round to determine the fastest four that will contest against each other. The top two from the combined round make a fourth run for the title.

Wisohart and her old faithful, who won the event back in 2022, swept the competition, winning the round against the World, the semifinals and finals, for a tidy sum of $10,250.

"It's a very good paying rodeo," said Wisohart, whose nephew Hayden Welsh topped the bull riding at the rodeo. "Leon Vick and his committee treat us so good. It's so fun to go up there, and everyone leaves with a little bit of money."

Wisohart (formerly Welsh) and Fire Fly were quite the decorated team before the gelding's retirement from pro rodeo in 2024. They went to several Badlands Circuit Finals, winning the rodeo twice, and qualified for the 2021 National Finals Rodeo, where they split the opening round win and placed in the aggregate.

After winning 2022 Colorado versus The World, the pair had a disastrous "hang" fall—where Fire Fly went down but caught himself before completely hitting the ground broadside—at the third barrel on their first run at the Fort Worth Stock Show. The fall left Fire Fly with a stifle injury that required surgery and nearly a year off from competition.

Wisohart and Fire Fly came back in 2023 to win Rodeo Austin, who they represented at this year's Colorado versus The World Rodeo. Unfortunately, Fire Fly wasn't sound enough to make another run at the NFR, so Wisohart retired him from pro rodeo competition.

During this time, Wisohart was making other big life changes. She moved from Wyoming to Stephenville, Texas, with her two children in August 2023. Then a little over a year ago, she married Craig Wisohart.

Horse-wise she focused on her young horses and training outside horses. When Fire Fly was sound enough to run again, Wisohart loaned him to Oakley Curtis to use at her South Dakota high school rodeos.

"I really had no intentions of stepping back on him," said Wisohart, who cut back from training outside horses when she went to work for her veterinarian Molly Bellefeuille seven months ago.

"Then in December I got an invite to Colorado versus The World. A couple of weeks before I left I ran my young ones and realized that was a long ways to go when it wasn't going very good on my young ones. I just texted her and said, 'I need to borrow my horse back!'"

Fire Fly had made less than 10 runs with Curtis, but she had kept the gelding in decent shape. Wisohart picked him up before Christmas and continued exercising him until New Year's Eve, when she ran him again for the first time in a year-and-a-half.

"I remember thinking that all I've been on is colts," said Wisohart. "It had been so long since I'd been on a finished horse that I hoped I remembered how to ride him! It was like I never stepped off him."

Bred by her parents Bob and Peggy Welsh, Fire Fly, 16, is by Frosty Frenchman out of Princess Bar Dash, by Hot Dasher. Both Bob and Wisohart rode Fire Fly's sire and dam. Her dad trained Fire Fly and she took over when the gelding was 5.

"After this weekend, we agree that he's not ready to be fully done yet," said Wisohart. "I was having a lot of soundness issues, feet issues, that summer that I did pull him (from rodeo) and retire him. I got my dad back doing his feet and his stifle is doing better. After this weekend, he's kind of shown us all that he can still hang with them a little bit. I'll just be very cautious as to where he runs and how much."

Wishart said she's going to hang on to Fire Fly for a little while before he goes back to Curtis to finish her high school rodeo season.

Napier Wins Fabulous $50K Slot Race on New Mare I Dont Kare

By Julie Mankin

Abbey Napier of Cordele, Georgia, grabbed the biggest paycheck of her young career – $7,652 – by winning the Open Slot Race at The Fabulous $50K in Unadilla, Georgia, on Jan. 10.

Napier, just 18, had only owned the 9-year-old mare I Dont Kare (“Leddy”) for about six weeks, having bought her through Abby Gray. The day before the big win, Napier had drug down two barrels at Unadilla in just their fourth run as a team.

“So, I called Abby and said, ‘Tell me what to fix for the slot race.’” Napier recalled. “She said I had too much pocket and should run her straighter at the barrels. So, I gave the mare less pocket and just let her work.”

Napier’s 15.405 won the Open Slot Race and earned $4,869, but it also landed second in Sunday’s High Stakes race, worth $1,266, and second in Sunday’s Open for another $1,300. And, of course it also won Sunday’s Youth race for $217.

“She makes it feel so easy! When I’m on her back it’s like I’m just up there for the ride,” said Napier. “But she’s really fast, and can make mistakes and still clock. Like, she went a stride or two past the first barrel and still won the slot race.”

Fast is written in Leddy’s DNA. The mare is by Triple Vodka, by Tres Seis out of the Stoli daughter Newport Lily. And she’s out of Sugar Shine Magic, by First To Shine – a stud by First Down Dash out of a Streakin Six/Truckle Feature mare – out of a Mr Jess Perry daughter. Leddy came from Bailey Gifford and made her way to Jennifer Ognio. Gray was riding the mare for Ognio when Napier had called asking if she knew of a solid 1D horse for sale.

“I instantly fell in love with her because she’s so chill and easy-going,” said Napier. “She’s never hot and can slow-work the pattern. She’s just unbothered. At Unadilla, I went to saddle her up and she was laying in the stall, so I just laid down with her for about five minutes. She’s just sweet and so chill.”

That check of nearly $8,000 will help Napier pay her parents back for their assistance in the purchase of the pretty bay mare. Napier’s mom is a nurse, for the record, and her dad’s a watermelon farmer. It was Napier’s aunt that had horses that she used to ride on weekends sometimes growing up. Abbey finally bought her first horse in 2022 – just something that had been to some playdays. But then, Gray let her on a good one.

“I ended up falling in love with one of her horses, and I started taking it seriously after she sold him to me,” said Napier. “Abby has helped me find the right horses to learn and grow with.”

Napier is a senior in high school – at home. But her days are long. She gets up and feeds, then does schoolwork for a few hours before riding seven or eight barrel horses. Then it’s a few more hours of school.

With Leddy, her plan is to start rodeoing. She’s buying her WPRM permit and, while she still has high-school rodeos, she’ll also start with amateur rodeos. Over the long term, Napier wants to just

Super Saturday kicks off 120th National Western Stock Show

By Susan Kanode; For the National Western Stock Show

As the dust settled over opening day of the National Western Stock Show, the first champions in the Denver Coliseum were crowned at Colorado Versus the World.

Rodeo action kicked off at 11 a.m. with the World performance. The Colorado performance saw athletes representing Colorado rodeos performing and then the evening featured the best from the earlier events.

Colorado Versus the World has been a tradition at the National Western for over a decade. Fans were not disappointed as the best of the best got to open up the event which is celebrating 120 years in Denver. Bareback riding, steer wrestling, saddle bronc riding, women's barrel racing and bull riding were featured at each of the three performances.

At the Cinch Jeans Team World performance, contestants represented the Dodge City (Kansas) Round-Up, Cheyenne (Wyoming) Frontier Days, Rodeo Rapid City (South Dakota), Rodeo Austin (Texas), RodeoHouston, Calgary (Alberta) Stampede, San Angelo (Texas) Stock Show & Rodeo, and the Fort Worth Stock Show & Rodeo.

The Pendleton Whisky Team Colorado athletes competed Saturday afternoon. The rodeos they were playing for are all based in the home state of the National Western Stock Show. Along with the rodeo here, they were also from the Larimer County Fair Rodeo (Loveland), Colorado State Fair Rodeo (Pueblo), Greeley Stampede, Pikes Peak or Bust Rodeo (Colorado Springs), Rooftop Rodeo (Estes Park), and the Elizabeth Stampede.

The field was narrowed to the point that the best contestant from the World went head-to-head with the best contestant from the Colorado team. The winner-take-all Shootout saw the most exciting action of the day. A highlight was watching Amanda Welsh win her second title here in the women's barrel racing.

Welsh was competing for Rodeo Austin in Texas, and was riding her great horse Firefly that took her to the National Finals Rodeo in 2021. Firefly has had to have extra special care since then because of injuries. After lots of rehabilitation, he was back here in 2024 when they won the title the first time. Then he was off again and she brought him back. She had loaned him to a young girl who has been bitten by the barrel racing bug and called to see if she could get him back to ride here. That paid off with another victory.

And after her win, she got to watch her nephew, Hayden Welsh win the bull riding for team Colorado. He was riding for the Rooftop Rodeo. The whole family claims Gillette, Wyoming as home. Hayden is following in the footsteps of his father, Bobby Welsh, who won the pro rodeo here in 2014.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

I was blessed to be able to see my granddaughters over Christmas. Best Christmas present! They wanted to go to Walmart and shop. As I was pushing the cart following them, this song came on the loud speaker that just makes you want to dance... so I did...

As I was gyrating around the cart, right there in Junior Fashions, the youngest, who is 14, watched me for a little bit...and without rolling her eyes and in a calm voice, she said, "Grams, I'm not sure how I feel about you dancing in Walmart..." LOL!

Well, David danced and his wife was embarrassed of him! Friends. It's 2026.

The word from the Lord to me for all of us is 2 Cor. 2:14, "Now thanks be to God who always leads us in triumph!"

If that doesn't cause you to want to dance, knowing we will victorious all year, then probably nothing will! Enjoy!
