Heidi Gunderson & Wonder If Im Lucky Heat Up Denver's National Western

By Tanya Randall

Heidi Gunderson and 2025 futurity standout Wonder If Im Lucky ("Casey") topped the $71,875-added National Western, held January 15-25 in Denver. The victory was worth $9,007.

"It sure was fun," said Gunderson, who hails from Murdock, Minnesota. "It was a great experience. I'm glad I did it. I didn't expect the outcome, but that horse just continues to rise above my expectations. I need to quit counting him out because he can do anything. I want to give him the opportunity to show the world that, so let's try it!"

Gunderson and Casey, owned by Shannon Kulseth, entered Denver via the rodeo's qualifier in Castle Rock, Colorado, late last year. "How do you have a horse like this and not give him a chance to see if he likes the rodeo world," said Gunderson. Last year they won multiple futurities including the Royal Crown Rock Springs and 5 State Breeders. "So I entered the (Denver) Qualifier, and my whole thought was if he gets through the Qualifier, we'll give it a shot. Well, he did."

They qualified for Denver by placing second in the second round of the Qualifier. Their first run was a little off the pace because Casey hadn't made any runs in a while due to the equine herpes outbreak cancellations.

To prepare Casey for Denver, Gunderson entered the Sandhills Stock Show & Rodeo in Odessa, Texas, to get the gelding accustomed to a performance. As a 4-year-old, he won two checks at pro rodeos in Isanti, Minnesota, and Brookings, South Dakota, while running in slack.

"It did not go well," she said of their Odessa experience. "He spooked from the first barrel. He spooked away from the first barrel and recovered, but not greatly."

Gunderson knew that Denver was going to be a challenge. She took advantage of the open arena at 6 a.m. each morning, first to acclimate Casey to the setting and then later as the only place available to exercise him out of the elements.

"They did let us in the arena every morning," she explained. "I don't know if it helped or hindered us. He always found something to look at. It just feels like if I go faster he has less to look at. "My goal all week was to go so fast that he wouldn't hear all the things and see all the things. I do run him in ear plugs. It was definitely loud in that building and I think the ear plugs helped him."

On their first run in their bracket of 12, Gunderson said she concentrated on keeping Casey between her hands and legs.

"He was looking all over the place," she recalled. "I could feel it underneath me. I just knew I needed to keep him going in straight lines. His ears were going every which direction."

They were second in their first performance with a 15.11. "It was the slowest of the four runs we made there," she said. "I knew he could be faster than that."

The were a 15.04 on the second run, which gave them the second fastest two run aggregate in their bracket, which advanced them to one of three semifinals performances.

In the semifinals, Casey clocked a 15.01 to win his semifinal performance and advance to the clean slate finals on Sunday. "I felt like his third run felt good, but I let him cut off my space going into the third barrel, so he kind of stepped out a little bit,"

SPONSORS: Cowgirl Tuff, Buckeye Nutrition, Arena Trailer Sales, 14.2 Hand Tack, Med-Vet Pharmaceuticals, Hay Chix

Gunderson recalled. "I thought if I fix that, he's a 14."

She was right. They were the only sub-15 in the finals with a winning 14.91.

"He just felt so confident (in the short round)," Gunderson said. "He wasn't looking around. He was dialed in on the barrels, and he knew what he went in there to do. I was so proud of him. I thought it would take him a whole lot more runs to get confident in front of a crowd.”

Gunderson, who quit her teaching job to train horses fulltime after Casey won the 2024 BFA Juvenile, said she was also extremely proud of how well the gelding handled the rodeo ground.

“He stood up,” she said. “That’s his style. He stands up underneath himself. But I didn’t know if (the ground in Denver) would scare him. He’s been a futurity horse. He slipped plenty of times, but he kept going and kept trying. It never rattled him. He just kept moving forward. Even in the Finals, I could feel a back leg slip when he left the first and leaving the second I felt a back leg slip. He never lost his focus about going forward and turning the next barrel. He just ran like a seasoned horse. He ran like the horse I know he can be. I have to give him all the credit. He really did it.”

Bred by Stephanie Cleveland, Casey is by Lucky Wonder Horse, a First Down Dash son of multiple NFR qualifier Rosas Cantina CC, and is out of the PC Mr Sun Peppy, Docs Superstar Bar mare TS Sunnys Superstar.

Kulseth, a longtime friend and client, purchased the gelding as a coming 2-year-old for $14,000 at the 2022 BFA Sale. Casey, who was started under saddle by Gunderson’s husband Mark, was always a star trainee. His only flaw was his watchy nature away from home. “I think he has an edge to him, but that edge is what helps him win too,” Gunderson said. “He’s just very aware of himself and what’s around him, but his reactivity also makes him very athletic and very fast and be able to make moves that you can’t teach other horses to do.”

Gunderson and Casey will run at the Black Hills Stock Show & Rodeo in Rapid City next week but then will take a little rodeo and aged event hiatus, while she turns into wrestling mom for her two boys. One wrestles in college and the other is a senior in high school. February is a huge month for wrestling tournaments.

“They have a lot of big matches that I don’t want to miss,” she said. “I might run at some circuit rodeos, but I might not necessarily run him. I have the mare, Lucky Blaze, and she deserves to run at some rodeos too.”

Gunderson is hopeful she’ll get enough won to enter Rodeo Austin.

“We’ll go back south in March,” she said, “and I’ll take some futurity horses with me too so I can run them at the April futurities.”

Molli Montgomery & Legsgonewild Trio Win $92K at Put Up Or Shut Up High Stakes Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Multiple futurity champion Molli Montgomery brought the heat to the Put Up Or Shut Up High Stakes Futurity, held January 22-24 at the Southeastern Arena in Unadilla, Georgia. The trainer from Dawson, Texas, rode three horses, all out of her 2016 BFA Juvenile Champion Legsgonewild, to $92,360 in total earnings.

"I think that's the most money I've ever won in one swoop," said Montgomery, who enjoyed the event's laidback atmosphere in spite of the high stakes payoff. "It was fun because it was almost like you were a jackpot but super high stakes. You go to Ruby Buckles and races like that and they're such a big production, you feel a lot of pressure. Here, it was so laid back. To win close to $100,000 at what feels like a local jackpot is crazy!"

Her biggest winner was Heavens Wild Side ("Chanel"), who topped the Futurity Slot for $48,958 and won the aggregate of the $5,000-added Futurity.

Montgomery was initially leery of entering the Slot Futurity, because she had just changed bridles on Chanel one run before the Futurity. Thankfully, the mare's supportive owner Jennifer Hinton of Hinton Performance Horses told her to take the chance.

"I asked Jennifer, 'Do you really want to enter Chanel in the Slot Race? I just changed bridles. I don't know what's going to happen!'" Montgomery said. "She said, 'I don't care. I believe in you and I believe in that horse. Put her in the Slot Race!' Thank God, she did!"

Chanel was second in the first go of the futurity with a 14.707 and smoked the field with a 14.477 to win the second go and Slot Futurity, which was determined by the best of an entry's two runs in the regular Futurity.

"Her second run was flawless," said Montgomery. "I just hit my points a little bit better (than the first run). Our steps were just perfect, going into the barrels. To me that's the difference between a .4 and a .7.

"When she ran in there and turned the first, I was like 'Okay!' Then she smoked the second, like crazy smoked the second. Running to the third, I thought the same thing that I thought on running to the third on Legs - 'Don't mess this up!' When you've got them that precise, one touch of that rein will cause them to hit it. I told myself to stay true and don't overreact. I sat there and just waited. She actually made up for me asking her late because I was trying to be careful!"

Montgomery said she just "got lucky."
"You've got to have everything on your side when you're making

BIT: Kathy James two-piece twisted with loose chain curb

SADDLE: Shiloh Contender

SADDLE PAD: 5 Star 7/8ths

LEG GEAR: 5 Star, front only

SHOEING: Steel rims on all four

FEED: Big V Feeds

HAY: Steamed Alfalfa. Hay from David Miller Hay Services

SUPPLEMENTS: OE Nutraceuticals Ultimate Oil, Big V Vita Pep, Gastrogard

TRAINING/CONDITIONING REGIMEN: "I lope circles and lope through the barrels three times. I might bit them up once a week, but mostly I lope circles for 15 minutes and spend five minutes loping the barrels. I'm riding mine five to six days a week."

SPONSORS: Big V Feeds, 5 Star Equine Products, OE Nutraceuticals, Double X Veterinary Services, JC Tax Service, PLLC, J&C Bits, Shiloh Saddlery, Equilume, Clint Rodgers, CJF, Succeed, Salado Equine Medical Center (John Janicek, DVM), Equi-Source runs like that," she said. "You have to have the owners on your side, the horse on your side and God on your side with everything as tough as it is to win these days. The stars have to align to make those perfect runs like that."

Montgomery also won $30,820 on Chanel's full brother Heavens Gone Wild ("Ferris"). The gelding finished second in both the Futurity Slot and Futurity.

Both horses are owned by Hinton Performance Horses. The 4-year-olds were bred by Leslie Newman, who owns the dam Legsgonewild, by Tres Seis.

Both Chanel and Ferris are by leading sire JL Dash Ta Heaven, one of Molli's favorite sires.

"They have this extra athletic ability that allows them to do

EVENT RECAP

- MOLLI MONTGOMERY was on fire at the Put Up or Shut Up Barrel Race winning $92,360 on 3 horses!
- All 3 of her money winners were out of her former 2016 BFA Juvenile winner Legsgonewild.
- Her 1-2 finishers in the Futurity Slot Race & Average; Heavens Wild Side & Heavens Gone Wild are full siblings by JL Dash Ta Heaven out of Legsgonewild.
- Her 3rd money winner Longleglouis was also out of Legsgonewild and by another Dash Ta Fame son, Eddie Stinson.
- MOLLI MONTGOMERY was an earner of $1,264,909 prior to this weekend so now sits at lifetime earnings of $1,357,269!

things in the turn that other horses can't do," Montgomery said of the JL Dash Ta Heavens that she's ridden. "The turn is so effortless for them it's like they're doing a little drive by. They're just there and gone, like it's nothing. That's not something you can train. It's just in them."

Montgomery said Chanel's and Ferris' talent also comes from their dam, Legs, who is still running for Hinton's daughter Brynn.

"There's a lot of things that I can see in those horses that come from Legs," said Montgomery, who also placed fourth in the first round of the Futurity on the DK Potter's 4-year-old Eddie Stinson mare out of Legs. "I knew these horses had it. It was just a matter of me bringing it out in them."

Jordynn Knight & Heza Swift Spyder Bank $33K at Xtreme Million

By Julie Mankin

There's a reason 19-year-old Jordynn Knight of Roosevelt, Utah, was named Athlete of the Event by the Burns Events crew at Xtreme Million Queen Creek – actually 34,711 reasons in the form of total dollars won. Heck, her horse Heza Swift Spyder was the Xtreme Horse of the Year back in 2024, and banked more than $22,000 in Queen Creek last year, as well.

“My horse really likes that pen,” said Knight, whose family winters in nearby Wittmann, Arizona. “He’s a lefty, and it’s an easier setup for a lefty there. I’m getting my timing pretty good on him.” At Queen Creek’s covered Horseshoe Park & Equestrian Centre on Jan. 22-24, she dominated. The Xtreme format is a million-dollar purse paid out over six performances. Knight ran there on Thursday, then went over to Buckeye to the Helzapoppin PRCA rodeo and won that by more than three-tenths for $1,729, then drove back to Queen Creek to clock the fastest time of the entire weekend – a 15.035. She did it all on Heza Swift Spyder, plus won some money on her other horses.

Knight and the stout sorrel clocked a 15.098 on Thursday to win the Open by a good tenth of a second worth $1,649, plus $2,285 in sidepot money. On Saturday, her 15.262 placed fourth for another $1,137. But that final scorching 15.035 won the sixth performance and incentive monies totaling $4,352. That was the time that won the Xtreme Million sidepot of $15,420 over Ivy Saebens on KN Fab’s Gift to Vegas – whose dam is NFR mare J Lo. And of course, Knight’s other time of 15.098 placed fifth for another $8,116. “He always does good at the Xtreme races,” Knight said. “He just really likes the ground they have. He’s getting to where he really hunts the first barrel and it’s a little off the fence in Queen Creek now.”

Nicknamed after Tow Mater, the tow truck from the Disney/Pixar Cars movie franchise, because of his crooked teeth, the gelding was bred by Clay Peck and purchased by Knights as a 3-year-old and trained by Stacy Glause. Jordynn stepped on his back halfway through his derby year.

Now 10, Mater is by The Goodbye Lane and named for that stud’s dam, Swift Goodbye, by Dash Ta Fame out of a Fiesta In The Sky/Tiny Watch mare. And he’s out of Coops Glory by BF Heza Hot Shot – a stud by Bully Bullion out of a Leaving Memories daughter. On the bottom, she was out of a mare that went back to Streakin Six and Jet Deck.

Knight knows her runs look picture-perfect now. But she said it was a long time coming.

“He always turned great to the right, but he was really strong to the left and would run by that first barrel,” she said. “As a futurity colt, he was super stiff to the left – we could not get him to turn the first barrel and would switch him every month. These last two years, he finally started getting solid enough to be sent in there and hunt it and turn it.”

One year ago, Knight and Mater had done well at Buckeye’s pro rodeo, after which she’d bought her WPRA card and went rodeoing. But in April, just as she was to start the California run, he came down with pneumonia.

“It took us forever to get the meds for him, and a month of treating it,” said Knight. “It wasn’t bacterial and he had a bunch of little things that kept delaying his recovery. I finally got him back in September.”

The Xtreme Million Queen Creek

EVENT RECAP

- Jordynn Knight was Athlete of the Event at Queen Creek racking up $34,711 on her mounts.
- Her main mount HEZA SWIFT SPYDER now has lifetime earnings of over $480k after the Xtreme Queen Creek Event! (per QStallions)
- 122 people with over $1,000 checks
- 53 people with over $3,000 checks
- 4,193 total entries

Knight's younger horses stepped up and got her to the Wilderness Circuit Finals, where she had hoped to run Mater. But he'd developed enough of a cough that same week she had to again lean on her then 7-year-old Dash Ta Fame mare Dashing French Belle and her then 6-year-old Tres Seis gelding Runnin Ron.

"I'm just glad to now have my horse back," she said. "I'd really like to try to keep him healthy and go to the big summer rodeos. I think he'll really like the big outdoor pens. He has such a long stride, it's easy for him."

New Stallion Incentive for the North Country Announced

In the last couple weeks The Gold Rush incentive has been launched. The Gold Rush incentive aims to bring a big paying event to the northern states at a time of the year that makes it possible for everyone in the northern states to have horses ready and able to run in. The Gold Rush will have 75 slots available at $6,000 annually and will start to be available February 15. The Gold Rush main event will be held during the Today's Horse West Fest September 24-27, 2026 in Rapid City, SD featuring a $150,000 added 2D Futurity (full second split) and $100,000 added 3D Maturity (.75 sec split). There will also be 5 Open Sidepots ($25,000 each) throughout the year (more info below).

By purchasing a slot, the slot owners horses they own, progeny by their stallion, or anything they are breeder of are eligible for nomination. Eligibility by slots will allow for more flexibility for the slot owners and the participants.

Below are some of the major bullet points laid out and there is a full explanation available on their Facebook page "The Gold Rush"

- Annual $6,000 slot with a $1,000 non refundable deposit Feb 15th, remaining balance due April 1st. Consecutive years dates will be December 31st and Feb 15th.
- Each slot owner receives $1,000 worth of nominations per year.
- $150,000 added futurity 1 second split- $500 entry
- $100,000 added 3D Maturity with ¾ second splits-$400 entry
- $125,000 Open sidepots at the Colorado Classic, Minnesota Futurity, Glacier Chaser Classic, Dash N Dance, and the Fizz Bomb- $100 entry fee 4D ½ second splits
- All 80% payback to owner 20% to slot owner
- $250 ONE TIME Nomination due Sept 1st their 2yo year, or prior to entering any sidepots this year.
- The Board Members are Lee Hanssen, Hallie Hanssen, Cally Kindred, Meaghan McPherson & Whitney Knippling.

For more information The Gold Rush Facebook page is "The Gold Rush", the email is thmgoldrush@gmail.com, or contact Lee Hanssen at 612.803.8515. Lee Hanssen, Hallie Hanssen & Maegan McPherson will be on The Money Barrel podcast on Feb 4 sharing more information about The Gold Rush if you want to listen in.

PRCA Board Votes to Relocate Headquarters to Wyoming

The Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association (PRCA) Board of Directors approved a non-binding memorandum of understanding to seriously consider relocating the organization's headquarters, along with the PRCA Hall of Fame and Museum of the American Cowboy, to Wyoming. The move would bring professional rodeo's premier organization to the Cowboy State, where rodeo is officially recognized as Wyoming's professional sport, by vote of the Wyoming Legislature. The process was thorough and included productive conversations from multiple locations and a proposal from Colorado Springs leadership.

In addition to a friendly business climate and no state income tax, Cheyenne offered to build a Hall of Fame and an administrative building to host the PRCA national headquarters with upgraded office space, first class conference rooms and other amenities. The relocation represents a strategic move for the PRCA and underscores Wyoming's deep-rooted connection to western heritage, rodeo and the cowboy way of life. The transition is anticipated to occur early in 2029.

The proposed PRCA campus will be located near the highly visible intersection of Interstate 25 and Interstate 80, positioning it at one of the most traveled crossroads in the region. The approximately 35-acre site is envisioned as the anchor of a new western-themed entertainment, cultural and shopping district, creating a year-round destination for fans, families and visitors from around the world.

PRCA leadership emphasized the long-term benefits of the move for the organization and its members.

"This is a strategic decision that positions the PRCA for the future," said Tom Glause, CEO of the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association. "Wyoming lives and breathes rodeo, and Cheyenne offers authenticity, visibility and alignment with our sport's values. The opportunity to build a purpose-driven campus that celebrates rodeo's history while supporting its growth is incredibly exciting."

Wyoming Governor Mark Gordon praised the decision and highlighted its significance for the state's economy and cultural identity.

"Rodeo has been a part of Wyoming since before we were a state. It is in our DNA. I grew up roping a dummy at every PRCA rodeo, first my dad and then myself, competed in," Gov. Gordon said. "There is no better place on Earth than right here in the Cowboy State for the PRCA to be headquartered. We have the legacy, respect the tradition, and will always honor the cowboy way and Code of the West. Powder River, Let'er Buck!"

The relocation is contingent upon approval of project funding by the Wyoming Legislature. In December, the Cheyenne LEADS Board of Directors voted to commit $15 million from its reserves as matching funds toward the project. Additional public and private funding sources will be pursued to support development of the campus and surrounding district.

"This announcement reflects both Wyoming's legacy and its future," said Betsey Hale, CEO of Cheyenne LEADS. "Rodeo is woven into the fabric of our state, and welcoming the PRCA, its headquarters, and the Hall of Fame to Cheyenne is a natural fit. The Cheyenne LEADS Board strongly believes in this opportunity and voted to invest $15 million as a show of commitment. We look forward to partnering with the City of Cheyenne, Laramie County, along with the PRCA, and other stakeholders to bring this visionary campus to life."

The future PRCA campus will house administrative offices, the Hall of Fame, and the Museum of the American Cowboy, creating a centralized home that honors the sport's legacy while supporting innovation, education, and fan engagement.

Additional details regarding funding, design, and development timelines will be released as the project moves forward.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Okay, I'm stealing this from Mike. It's getting to be a regular habit! The times we are living in are a bit chaotic, to say the least. I'm becoming more like a teenage girl every day.

When I listen to the news, my eyes start rolling and I need to slap myself for allowing it. None of what is going on today is a surprise to God. Us maybe. Not God. And He told us that in these last days people were going to get goofy, crazy, and downright evil. 2 Tim 3:1-9.

But if we keep reading into verse 10, we are promised that "out of them all, the Lord delivered us". Does that mean we do nothing? No.

And this is from Mike, that the Holy Spirit gave him. We need to stop WHINING, WORRYING AND WONDERING WHY, and start PRAISING, PRAYING AND PREACHING!

Boy did I need that. Friends, let's use all the weapons God has given us to be overcomers and from this day forward, be a part of the solution, not the problem!
